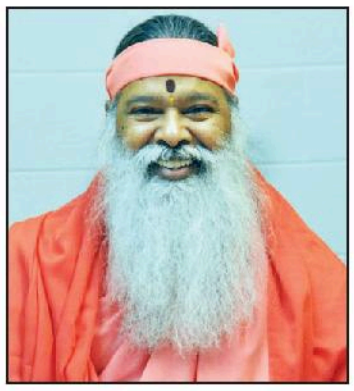
Six-day 'Vishwashanti Padayatra' from Mekedatu to Mysuru Ashram

Padayatra will be held from May 13 to 18 and Vardhanthotsava from May 22 to 31



Sri Ganapathy Swamiji

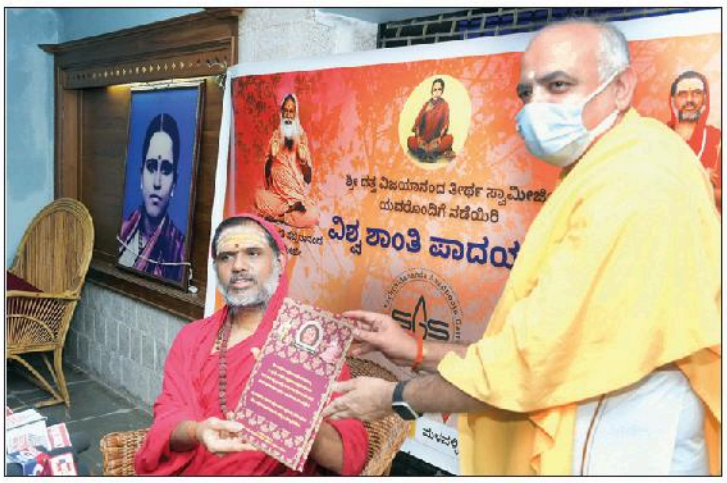
Mysuru, May 11 (RKB&DM)- As a prelude to the ten-day 80th birthday celebrations of Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji, the Founder Pontiff of Avadhoota Datta Peetham, a six-day 'Vishwashanti Padayatra' for world peace and harmony will be taken out from Mekedatu to Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram on Nanjangud Road in city, starting from May 13.

Announcing this at a press meet at the Ashram premises here this morning, Junior Pontiff Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji, who will be leading the padayatra, said that the 80th birthday celebrations (Vardhanthotsava) of Sri Swamiji will be held in the Ashram premises from May 22 to 31. As part of it, the 'Vishwashanti Padayatra' will be taken out from Mekedatu in Kanakapura taluk along the Karnataka-Tamil Nadu border, the birthplace of Sri Swamiji.

The padayatra, to be launched from Mekedatu where the holy River Cauvery flows, will pass through Dodda Alahalli, Sathanur, Halagur, Malavalli and Bannur, before reaching the Ashram in Mysuru on May 18.

The padayatra also marks the 101st birth anniversary of Ganapathy Swamiji's mother late Jayalakshmi Maata, he said adding that the yatra will enroute also visit the famed Narasimhaswamy Temple near Malavalli marking Narasimha Jayanthi, which falls on a day during the padayatra.

The Junior Seer said that initially it was planned to take out the padayatra with 80 participants but this number had to be increased to over 200 because of the demands of devotees.



Avadhoota Datta Peetham Junior Pontiff Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji and Trustee H. V. Prasad seen during the press meet at the Ashram in city this morning.

Noting that Cauvery River water collected at Mekedatu will be carried throughout the padayatra, he said after it reaches Mysuru on May 18, this water will be used for performing Abhisheka to the idol of Lord Dattatreya and Pada Puja of Ganapathy Swamiji in the Ashram.

He further said that the padayatra has five objectives — Health and safety of women and children, Cattle protection (Gou Samrakshane), Assistance to financially weaker schools and Veda Pathashalas, Concern for poor farmers and 'Paryavarana', meaning saving the environment and mother earth by planting saplings.

The padayatra also aims to send out a message to the population on the importance of walking and doing physical exercises, the Junior Swamiji said.

Foreign contributions: CBI conducts 40 raids including in Mysuru

New Delhi, May 11 (Agencies)- After getting a complaint from the Ministry of Home Affairs, the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) conducted a nationwide operation at about 40 locations including Mysuru in connection with Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Amendment Act, (FCRA) 2020 violation.

A detailed note on 3 FCRA-clearance networks which are reportedly operating and have linkages with Government officials are charging speed money or problem resolution money. It has been decided, with the approval of the competent authority, that CBI should immediately investigate this matter for taking necessary action, read an official letter.

When the alleged violation was brought to the notice of Home Minister Amit Shah, the Union Minister immediately asked the CBI to take action into the matter. The operations are underway in Delhi, Rajasthan, Chennai, Hyderabad, Coimbatore, Mysuru, etc, to "nab representatives of NGOs, middlemen and public servants of MHA's FCRA division who were facilitating illegal FCRA clearances in lieu of bribes."

"CBI has apprehended some accused, including public servants, while bribes were being exchanged. Half a dozen public servants and others are being quizzed. These individuals were allegedly committing a violation of FCRA provision and facilitating illegal clearance of FCRA matters in exchange for bribes," said a senior CBI official.

Ten people including six public servants are being questioned. During searches, transactions of Rs. 2 crore have been allegedly found which were routed through the hawala channel.

The FCRA division of MHA is responsible for granting permission to NGOs under FCRA to receive funds from abroad. This division is also responsible for the cancellation of the licences of the NGOs that violate the law.

There are 16,890 NGOs registered with MHA and the registration over around 20,600 NGOs have been cancelled for various violations in the past decade. In March, the MHA had told the Parliament that it had rejected the renewal licences of 466 NGOs since 2020.

Youths play a key role in saving our culture: Union Minister

Dr. Rajkumar Ranjan

Mysuru, May 11 (MTY&DM)- Asserting that the country's rich culture, heritage and traditions are important, Union Minister of State for Education and External Affairs Dr. Rajkumar Ranjan Singh said that youths should actively engage in saving our cultural environment.

He was speaking as the chief guest at the 13th Graduates' Day of JSS College for Women (Autonomous) in the College premises at Saraswathipuram here recently.

Appreciating the role of the College in spreading education, Dr. Rajkumar Ranjan Singh said it is important to free women from the clutches of dogmatic beliefs and ensuring their place in the society.

Arguing that Indian culture has always respected women, the Union Minister described culture as a whole which includes knowledge, art, morals, beliefs and innumerable other aspects handed down from generation to generation.

Stressing on the need for every creature on this earth to live unitedly, he said that job opportunities will come to our doorstep if we succeed in overcoming challenges and shortcomings. He had a word of advice for the new graduates saying that they should always be aware of having inherited a rich culture and they should preserve its essence and pass on the same to posterity.

A total of 670 students (557 degree and 113 Post-Graduates) received their certificates on the occasion. The Union Minister's wife Prof. Debala Devi, a Geography Professor, distributed prizes to toppers.

Those who received the prizes include R. Kusumitha, N. Prema and S. Stefiruth (Graduates); B.M. Neelamma and K.K. Sahana in M.A. (Economics); K.A. Anusha and S. Sangeetha in M.Com; S. EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Increasing agricultural supply at steady if not declining prices is not going to be easy for political reasons. The States have not shown themselves to be particularly sensitive to the charge that they do little to ensure a supply of cheap food for the rest of the country, or even themselves in some cases. When they do produce surpluses, their only concern is that these be procured by the Central Government at the highest price. The stances of the leaders of wheat-producing northern States and rice-producing southern ones reflect this. Under these circumstances, a nation-wide project for producing food cheaply remains a distant dream. Now that the farm laws have been repealed, it is the time to initiate a discussion on how such a project can be taken forward. Costly food threatens the health of the population, as people economise on their food intake, and holds back the economy, as only a small part of a household's budget can be spent on non-agricultural goods. — Pulapre Balakrishnan and M. Parameswaran in The Hindu

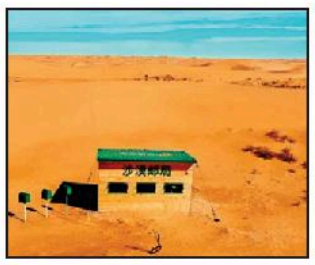
Lollipop stick implanted as contraceptives

Venezuela: A Venezuelan man was recently arrested for allegedly implanting plastic lollipop sticks under the skin of dozens of people and tricking them into thinking that they were advanced contraceptive devices.

38-year-old Jose Daniel Lopez is the accused who had tricked at least 25 women into paying him to implant simple lollipop sticks under their skin as contraceptives. Lopez, who had no medical qualifications, worked in health centres in La Victoria and Maracay, Venezuela, after falsifying his medical degree. He performed the subdermal implants himself, claiming they were "Implanon" an actual contraceptive procedure that involves small plastic rods being implanted under the skin of the upper arm.

Lopez's scam came to light when an actual doctor named Rafael Chirinos took to social media to warn people about it, claiming that he had seen mentions of this procedure on WhatsApp from women who had become pregnant and didn't understand why.

A post office in the middle of desert



Tengger Desert: Deep in the Tengger Desert of Inner Mongolia and surrounded by sand dunes as far as the eye can see, lies the world's loneliest post office, a surprisingly bustling outpost of human connection.

Measuring only 15 square metres, the wooden post office of Tengger Desert is not much to look at, but that's ok, it doesn't get too many visitors anyway. Besides, after being abandoned for over 35 years, it actually doesn't look half bad. Thanks to the efforts of a few intrepid individuals who learned about the existence of an old abandoned desert post office by mistake, it has been given a new lease on life and thanks to the magic of the internet, it has actually become quite a busy operation.

Mushrooming of petty shops on Mahadevapura-Rammanahalli Main Road

Sir,

I wish to bring to the notice of the authorities concerned towards the roadside tea shops and similar petty shops dotting the Mahadevapura-Rammanahalli Main Road, causing problems to road users.

Of late, the vendors are resurfacing and pitching their tents before slowly converting them into permanent structures.

With the encroachment of footpaths, people are scared to walk on this busy road. This has also led to heavy traffic congestion in the mornings and evening peak hours.

Several hotels, petty shops, fast food joints, bike garages and puncture repair shops have come up on the footpath.

Customers who come on two-wheelers and four-wheelers and even lorries park their vehicles on this road to have food from the fast food carts. Also there are higher chances of accidents as the road is narrow.

On behalf of the tax-paying citizens, I request the Mysuru City Corporation Commissioner to look into this matter at the earliest and find a lasting solution.

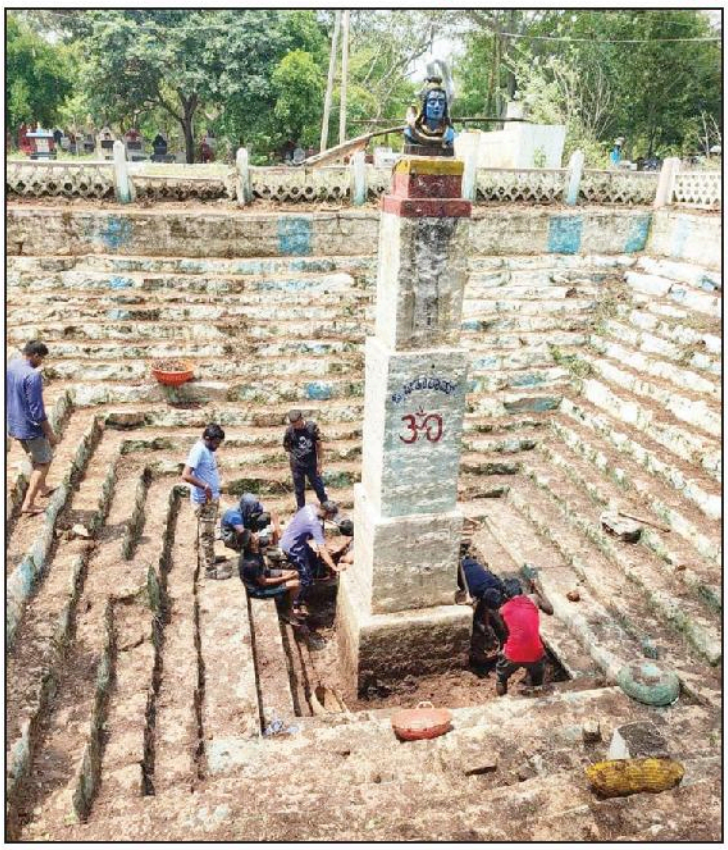
Chamundi Foothill Kalyani's concrete pillar collapses

Plea to MCC to clean the water source so that age-old Kalyani can spring back to life



Mysuru, May 11 (BCT)- The concrete pillar right in the middle of the Kalyani on the way up to the Chamundi Hill near the burial grounds has collapsed. The Kalyani that was covered with wild weed growth and silt was recently cleaned by the volunteers of Yuva Brigade in a 12-hour operation.

The historic Kalyani at the Chamundi foothill is one among the three rare Kalyanis within the city limits and the other two similar Kalyanis are located at the premises of Suttur Mutt and at Madhuvana, the final resting place of Mysore Wadiyars.

The cleaning task undertaken by over 40 Yuva Brigade volunteers removed over two tractor loads of waste and silt. The pillar at the Kalyani's middle was cleaned and after cleaning, when the volunteers broke a part of the pillar, water gushed out indicating that the Kalyani was alive and could be revived so that it can be a water source for people who come to the burial grounds to perform the last rites of their loved ones.

The volunteers, after cleaning, left a tortoise inside the water body as over 1-ft water had been collected. Now probably due to the pressure of the water, the stone pillar has collapsed and the stone blocks have strewn all around. Fortunately, there was no one in the vicinity when the collapse occurred. There is an idol of Shiva atop the pillar and now it has been displaced.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Convener of Mysuru unit of Yuva Brigade S. Chandrashekar said that the pillar would have fallen as the foundation was not laid properly and would have gone weak due to the pressure of water.

"We will go there next week and clear the rubble and we will give a representation to the Mysuru City Corporation to retain the Kalyani so that water can fill up. In fact, the pillar is unnecessary there and if the pillar is reconstructed, the age old Kalyani will die again and it will be full of silt, waste and wild weed growth," he said.

Instead of reconstructing the pillar, the MCC must clean the water source so that fresh water can fill the Kalyani. "If this is done, the Kalyani will look good and it will be full during monsoon as plenty of rainwater will flow from the Chamundi Hill," he added.

Pointing out that during the UPA tenure under Dr. Manmohan Singh, the cooking gas price was Rs. 410, she said, "Now, it has crossed Rs. 1,000. The PM talked about Achhe Din for people before coming to power, but brought difficult days now. With Ujwala scheme they had claimed that kitchens will be smoke free. But frequent increase in LPG cylinder price has forced Ujwala users to use fire wood and more smoke is seen in the kitchens now," she added.

Former Mayor Pushpalatha Chikkanna, City Women Congress Wing President Pushpavalli and others took part.

At the same venue, Mysore City and District Congress workers staged a mock auction depicting officials auctioning Government jobs and later giving money to Ministers.

Urging for reconduct of the recruitment exams for PSI and Assistant Professors in the wake of the scam, they sought filling up of all vacancies in Universities and all Government Departments in a fair and transparent manner.

Claiming that casteism, nepotism, political influence and money were playing a key role in Government appointments, they maintained that this has rendered gross injustice to poor and deserving candidates.

'Rampant land conversion in Kodagu will kill River Cauvery'

Government must study uniqueness of each district and frame laws: Kodagu Samrakshana Vedike

Mysuru, May 11 (RKB&BCT)- Concerned over the recent announcement by Revenue Minister R. Ashoka stating that agricultural land conversions across Karnataka would be approved within three days and the required amendments would be brought to the Karnataka Land Revenue Act, the Kodagu Samrakshana Vedike has said that this would be a disaster for Kodagu, the principal catchment area of River Cauvery.

Addressing a press conference at Pathrakarthara Bhavan in city this morning, President of Kodagu Samrakshana Vedike Chottekmada Rajeev Bopaiah said that the Government move will destroy hilly terrains and ecologically-sensitive regions such as Kodagu.

"Large scale land conversion in Kodagu for sites and layouts will invite large numbers of people from outside the State into Kodagu and exert extreme pressure on potable drinking water and water for agriculture and industry. It will kill the River Cauvery that is a lifeline of Karnataka," he said.

Accompanied by Vedike members Col. (Retd.) Cheppudira P. Muthanna, Jammada Ganesh Ayanna and Annira Harish Madappa, Rajeev Bopaiah said that the High Court had stayed the process of land conversions in Kodagu stating that the No Objection Certificate (NOC) for land conversions issued by the committee headed by the Deputy Commissioner is not valid to approve blanket land conversions.

Burning problems ignored; focus on new roads: Requesting support from Kodagu MLAs Appachu Ranjan, K.G. Bopaiah, MP Pratap Simha and MLCs Veena Achaiah and Suja Kushalappa, the Vedike appealed to them to save the birthplace of Cauvery from destruction due to rampant land conversions. "Unfortunately, the burning problems of Kodagu like human-animal conflict, land conversion, Pouthi Khata and electricity are ignored by the elected representatives and they are interested in only developing new highways, further destroying the landscape," they said.

The Vedike demanded that the Government must act immediately to avoid destruction of Kodagu. "Unfortunately, many politicians and political leaders are involved in land conversion in Kodagu and those DCs who resist attempts to convert land are being transferred within three months and DCs who act favourably to the politicians are brought in," Rajeev Bopaiah alleged.

"We have seen how Kodagu was ravaged by floods in 2018 and 2019 abetted by unbridled urbanisation and infrastructure development to promote tourism. Sale of agricultural land for non-agricultural purposes will have devastating consequences as reckless urbanisation has already caused a negative impact on the environment as evident in the floods and landslides," he said.

Bearing on water: "The government move makes it easy for any individual, industrialist or real estate stakeholders to directly approach farmers and purchase land. It's not just about land in Kodagu but this will also have a bearing on water and its implications will be felt in the downstream region of the State like Mysuru and Mandya, impacting food security and agriculture," Rajeev Bopaiah added.

The Vedike has demanded that instead of passing land laws that are applicable across the State, the Government should study the uniqueness of each district and frame laws according to the local environment and ecology. "We will take our movement to the next level that will include a boycott of elections," the Vedike has warned.

MUDA to reclaim encroached land

Now, another case of land encroachment has been unearthed by MUDA authorities and subsequently measures are being taken to reclaim 1.15 acres of encroached land coming under a Hinkal Survey Number.

Upon finding that 1.15 acres of land in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage, coming under Hinkal Survey No. 105 had been encroached upon by some private persons, allegedly in connivance with MUDA staff, the previous MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh on Mar.4, 2022 wrote to the Deputy Commissioner and the Assistant Commissioner seeking cancellation of the Khata of the said land. He had also directed the MUDA officials to take back possession of the land.

Details: The Government on Mar.29,1984 had issued notification for acquisition of 1.15 acres of land in Hinkal Survey No.105 for formation of Vijayanagar Layout.

Accordingly, the land acquisition process was completed on Aug.6,1985, following which the said land was documented in the RTC as MUDA acquired land.

But on Feb.7, 2006, the then MUDA Special Land Acquisition officer de-notified the land in the absence of any Government order or a Court ruling. With a copy of the de-notification in hand, the then Mysuru Taluk Tahsildar subsequently registered Khata for the said land in the name of a woman. Later on, the 'Pahani' record (MRH 4/2014-15) of the said land was illegally issued in the name of one Venkatachala Reddy, son of late Kondareddy on Feb.20, 2021.

This action had led to suspicion of a huge irregularity as no official has the power to denotify a land without a Government order or a Court ruling. But despite knowing this fact, the then Land Acquisition Officer had denotified the land and also got the Khata registered in the name of a private person, which raised serious doubts about the entire process.

Previous MUDA Commissioner Dr. Natesh, who had taken serious note of this alleged irregularity, ordered the officials to get the Khata registration of the said land cancelled by writing to the Deputy Commissioner and the Assistant Commissioner immediately and take control of the land.

MUDA Special Land Acquisition Officer reacts

Meanwhile, the current MUDA Special Land Acquisition Officer Harshavardhan, reacting to the alleged illegal Khata registration, said that the order issued by the previous Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh would be shown to the present Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar and the matter would be discussed in detail with him.

Stating that he does not know how the then Land Acquisition Officer had de-notified the land coming under Hinkal Survey No.105 without any Government sanction or a Court ruling, Harshavardhan said that based on the directions to be issued by the higher-ups regarding the matter, he would write to the Tahsildar seeking cancellation of Khata registration of the 1.15 acres of land in question.

Jaguar, black panther to arrive at Mysuru Zoo from Ukraine?

Mysuru, May 11 (SBD&BCT)- Mysuru Zoo has come forward to house a jaguar and a black panther that will be brought from war-torn Ukraine to India after the completion of mandatory processes.

The animals were being fed and taken care of till now by Dr. Giri Kumar Patil, a native of Tankara in Mahbubnagar district in Telangana. He had bought the two cats from the Kyiv Zoo about 20 months ago and after the war began, he refused to leave home without his pets. Later he was captured by Russian soldiers and seeing his Indian passport, he was freed. While the male jaguar, named 'Yasha' is 20 months old, the female panther, named 'Sabrina' is a six-month-old cub. The jaguar is a rare hybrid between a male leopard and a female jaguar. He spent 35,000 US Dollars to buy the panther and the jaguar from the Kyiv Zoo.

The doctor, popularly known as Jaguar Kumar, said that the Indian Government proposed to relocate the two big cats to a zoo. He, however, wanted to be relocated to either Telangana or Andhra Pradesh with his pets. He said he would shift to Hyderabad even if he was given a wing in the city's Nehru Zoological Park for his pets.

He later approached the Telangana Government with a request for allotment of 50 acres of land for the animals but the Govt. turned down his request as keeping wild animals as pets is not permitted in India according to the Indian Wildlife Act. However, the Telangana Government asked him to make arrangements to leave his pets in any Indian zoo.

Hearing the news, Mysuru Zoo authorities offered to take care of the pets. The Indian authorities had given a list of Zoos in India and sources said that Dr. Kumar expressed his desire to house his pets in Mysuru Zoo. However, he is yet to contact Mysuru Zoo.

Central Zoo Authority (CZA) contacted Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) Chairman L.R. Mahadevaswamy and had asked if Mysuru Zoo would be ready to accept the animals. Mysuru Zoo already houses a black panther and jaguars. CZA was informed that the Zoo had planned to get jaguars and black panthers from different nations but the COVID pandemic played a spoilsport.

ZAK Member-Secretary B.P. Ravi said that the Mysuru Zoo has good facilities, ideal climate and a team of caretakers and doctors. "If the Government permits, we will take care of the animals," he said.

Zoo Executive Director Ajit M. Kulkarni said that the Zoo was ready to take care of the animals. "I do not have information about the pending proposal but we are ready to house the felines as we have all the facilities. The Mysuru Zoo would be an ideal place for them," he said.

Chiguru Sambhrama-2022 held

Flautist Navaneeth and vocalist Yeashas N. Kashyap, accompanied by artistes on mridanga and violin, performing at Veene Seshanna Bhavana as part of 'Chiguru Sambhrama-2022'

Mysuru, known as the Cultural Capital of Karnataka, is indeed becoming much richer in art and culture from the past decade. There are more number of music, dance and drama programmes and festivals being organised successfully by cultural institutions.

One such event was 'Chiguru Sambhrama-2022' organised by Sri Nataraja Performing Arts Centre (SNPAC), Mysuru, on Apr. 4 at Veene Seshanna Bhavana in Kuvempunagar, Mysuru. The one-day festival was held in the memory of Karnataka Kalashree late Vidwan L. Ramasesha.

Renowned artistes Vid. A.P. Krishnaprasad, Vid. Naveen Andagar and Vidu. Varija Nalige, along with SNPAC President M.K. Balaraj, inaugurated the festival.

Firstly, budding flautist Navaneeth, son and disciple of Vid. A.P. Krishnaprasad, presented some pieces very elegantly.

Inauguration of Chiguru Sambhrama 2022.

Beginning with Varnam in Raga Kadanakutuhala, the young artiste presented Thyagaraja's compositions Yochana Kamala Lochana and Raama Nee Pai Tanaku. A pleasant and happy mood was created with the last piece which was Thillana in Ragam Thilang. The lower notes gave a melancholy character, however, in the medium and upper register, the flute sounds mellow, light, wafting, bright, rich and shrilling.

Secondly, with his tuneful voice, singer Yeashas N. Kashyap, son and disciple of Vid. Naveen Andagar, presented various classical pieces setting out with Subramanya Iyer's Navaragamalika Varnam, Sri Gajananayutham: a devaranama composed by Sri Muthuswami Dikshitar, Saamajavaragamana: one of the famous composition of Sri Thyagaraja, Venkatachala nilayam: composed by Sri Purandaradasa in Sindhubhairavi Ragam. All these pieces were brilliantly presented which were accompanied by the mridanga and violin artistes. These were very well-appreciated by the art-lovers.

Later, in the second half of the programme, the audience witnessed Vid. Varija Nalige's team presenting Bharatanatyam items beginning with 'Gajavadana beduve' in the praise of Lord Ganesha, followed by a Jathiswaram and concluded their performance with Saint Purandaradasa's 'Mella mellane bandane.'

This was later followed by dance performances from Vidu. Nagashree's team of young dancers. Students performed Chaturashra Alaripu, Kalyani Jatiswaram, Muruga Kavthuvam and Tallapaka Annamacharya's composition Brahmamokate. The dance pieces executed by these two teams were filled with grace and depth of feeling, moving the audience to experience rasa (aesthetic flavour), bhava (emotion) and abhinayam (expression).

This initiative was a unique idea of bringing Music and Dance together on one stage in a single Festival by Vidu. Nagashree Phaneendra Kumar.

Mallikarjunaswamy and others look on. Picture right shows artistes of Dhatri Ranga Samsthe, Sirigeri, Ballari, staging the play 'Muddannana Promotion Prasanga' yesterday.

Mysuru, May 11 (GA&TRR)- Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) Dr. B.S. Manjunathaswamy inaugurated the 5-day 'Sanchalana Rangotsava' organised by Sanchalana Mysuru in association with Department of Kannada & Culture and Shravanashrama, Mysuru, at Kirurangamandira in the premises of Kalamandira on Monday evening.

Speaking on the occasion, the ADC opined that in order to identify the various facets of a literary creation of a writer, drama plays an important role and has become a main platform to convey new information to people. Stating that most of the Jnanpith awardees had theatre background, he said that many experiments were carried out by them through enactment of plays.

"During COVID times, we promoted Dasara procession through online platforms. In the same way, the Mysuru theatre troupes should try to reach more audience through online," he suggested.

On the first day of the Rangotsava, Dhatri Ranga Samsthe, Sirigeri, Ballari, staged the play 'Bahubali Vijayam' and on Tuesday 'Muddannana Promotion Prasanga' was staged. Today (May 11), they will be staging the play 'Vishwamithra Menake Dance Madodu Yenake?' at 6.30 pm.

WORD OF THE DAY

Flummox

Pronunciation: FLUM-uks.
Meaning: Flummox means "to confuse."
Origin: No one is completely sure where the word flummox comes from, but Charles Dickens was aware of it and used it in his 1837 novel The Pickwick Papers. It became quite common in both British and American English by the end of the 19th century.
Example: "It was an unfortunate ending for a defense that sputtered early as a bunch of new faces learned to adjust.... The late-season collapse, which included an inability to ... consistently pressure the quarterback, flummoxed players and coaches alike." — Jim McBride

THE ODD WORD

Fabulist

One who invents fables.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Flea market

Meaning: 'Flea Market' refers to a market, often held outdoors, where a variety of used goods are sold.
Origin: The term 'flea market' is a direct translation of the French phrase 'marche aux puces,' which literally implies that some of the furniture, used clothing, and other items might be flea-infested.
Example: "We bought that table at the flea market."

QUOTE BOX

Content builds relationships. Relationships are built on trust. Trust drives revenue. — Andrew Davis

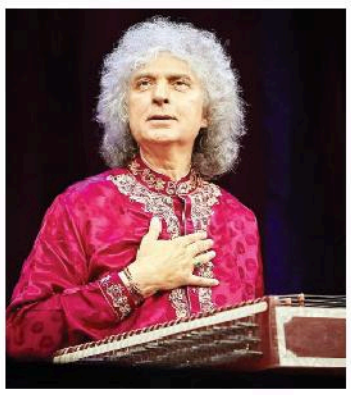
Renowned santoor player
Pt. Shivkumar Sharma no more

Mumbai, May 11- Renowned santoor player Pt. Shivkumar Sharma, who took the stringed instrument to the global stage and successfully straddled the worlds of classical and film music, died in Mumbai yesterday following a heart attack. He was 84.

Pt. Shivkumar Sharma, one of India's most well-known classical musicians, died between 8 and 8.30 am at his Pali Hill residence in Mumbai, his Secretary Dinesh told news agency.

He had been active till the end and was due to perform in Bhopal next week. He was also suffering from renal ailments.

"He had a severe heart attack in the morning... He was active and was to perform in Bhopal next week. He was on regular dialysis but was still active," a family source told.



Pt. Shivkumar Sharma

He is survived by his wife Manorama and sons Rahul, also a santoor player, and Rohit.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi was among those who condoled Sharma's death.

"Our cultural world is poorer with the demise of Pandit Shivkumar Sharma Ji. He popularised the Santoor at a global level. His music will continue to enthral the coming generations. I fondly remember my interactions with him. Condolences to his family and admirers. Om Shanti," the Prime Minister said.

A Padma Vibhushan recipient, Pt. Shivkumar Sharma was born in Jammu in 1938 and is believed to be the first musician to have played Indian classical music on the santoor, a folk instrument from Jammu and Kashmir.

As one half of musician duo Shiv-Hari, he composed music with flute legend Pt. Hari Prasad Chaurasia for an array of films such as "Silsila", "Lamhe", "Chandni" and "Darr".
